219

October 4th, 1917

Mr. J. Peterson Pyder,

Drexel Institute,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Pyder:

Very many thanks for your kindness in engaging accommodation for my wife and myself at the Bellevue-Stratford during the celebrations at the Drexel Institute. I am glad to accept your kindness for myself, but Lady Falconer will be unable to accompany me. She will write Mrs. Godfrey herself.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Pyder, J Peterson = The Drexel Institute October 1917

October 12th, 1917

Mr. J. Peterson Ryder,

Drexel Institute,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Ryder:

The subject that I intend to take for my address on Friday night is "The Education of the English-speaking Peoples". It may be of some advantage to you to know beforehand.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.